Brian Kane, Assistant Chief Deputy, who authored the analysis concluded that yes, nominations must be endorsed by head of the nominating agency.

Item 3C - Next, Mr. Kane discussed a general legal issue with the Medal of Honor Commission rules that he discovered while researching his analysis. The MOH Commission rules have not been properly promulgated via the Administrative Procedure Act (APA). The Commission needs to decide whether or not to promulgate the rules via APA or to amend the statute, via the Legislature, to make the Commission exempt from this requirement. The Commissioners discussed the pros and cons of both processes. Bob Wells suggested a sub-committee be formed within the Commission to review this issue, and further volunteered to chair said committee. Dennis Doan and Bryan Taylor were appointed by the chair to also serve on the sub-committee. Chairman Wasden assigned Deputy Attorney General Mike Gilmore to serve as the legal advisor. The sub-committee is to bring a report and recommendation back to the committee when it next meets at the call of the Chair.

Item 4 – Consideration of the Nominees.

Item 4A – Nomination of William Cowell, police detective for the Bonners Ferry Police Department. A lengthy video was submitted with the nomination form for this incident and the first few minutes of the video were played at this time. Hearing none, he called for the vote. The motion passed unanimously. Bonners Ferry Police Chief Robert Boone was contacted via phone and asked to give a brief summary of the incident. Chairman Wasden noted that Mr. Cowell received the distinguished service medal, which was awarded by Steve Benkula, and that as a measure of full transparency, he wanted to disclose that Mr. Benkula now works for the Attorney General's Office. The Chairman then opened up the floor for the Commission members to ask Chief Boone questions. The Commission members discussed their understanding of the incident and the nominations at length.

Chairman Wasden asked if there was any further discussion. Hearing no comments, he called for a motion. Bob Wells moved to NOT award the Medal of Honor to William Cowell. Coeur d'Alene Police Chief Lee White was contacted via phone. There is an issue with this nomination as it was not signed by the current chief executive or director of the all the nominating agencies involved as required by the rules (see item 3B). Bob Wells recommended the Commission return this nomination, contact the various agencies involved, and if they wish to nominate their officers again, ask them to re-submit next year, with the proper signatures. Bob Wells moved to return this nomination (without prejudice) with the above recommendations. Wayne Denney seconded the motion. Chairman Wasden called for discussion.
