

STATE OF IDAHO
LAW ENFORCEMENT, FIREFIGHTING AND EMS
MEDAL OF HONOR

Awarded to

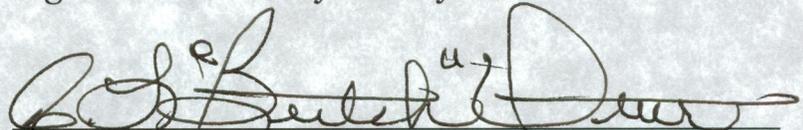

Jason Ewing

For conspicuous gallantry and exceptionally meritorious conduct at the risk of life above and beyond the call of duty.

On November 28, 2010, at approximately 2:00 a.m., Lewiston Reserve Police Officer Jason Ewing and Lewiston Police Officer Dustin Hibbard reported to a fire at an apartment complex. The officers, who were the first emergency responders on the scene, entered the back of the complex, where they heard a woman screaming for help. Officers Ewing and Hibbard found the apartment and forced their way in, despite the overwhelming smoke and poor visibility. They found the woman in her back bedroom, trapped by the fire, and rescued her from the apartment.

Officer Ewing's extraordinary heroism and resolute courage, fortitude, and endurance, with grave danger to his own life above and beyond the call of duty, are in the highest traditions of the Lewiston Police Department and Idaho law enforcement.

Signed this 18th day of May 2012.

C.L. "BUTCH" OTTER, Governor of Idaho
